PROJECT NAME: Workly

TEAM MEMBERS: Bria Mihai Claudiu, Icleanu Iustin-Cristian, Țighiliu Mihai, Petreanu Andrei

IDEA IN SHORT:

Workly turns job discovery into a scrollable, addictive experience, similar to short-form video platforms

Hardcore Entrepreneur hackathon 6.0

1.PRODUCT - PROBLEM WE SOLVE

Hiring for short-term, local, or flexible work is still slow, fragmented, and inefficient. Traditional platforms rely on static listings, long application processes, and poor matching systems. At the same time, people, especially younger workers, prefer quick, visual, and mobile-first experiences.

2. OUR TARGET GROUP & SDGs

Primary: Gen Z & Millennials seeking flexible income Gig workers, students, freelancers Secondary: Small businesses needing quick hires Local service providers (restaurants, events, retail, logistics) We have identified that our business model directly contributes to the following global objectives:

- SDG no. 8, by promoting sustainable economic growth and productive employment.
- SDG no. 11, by making communities more inclusive and self sustainable.

3. SMART OBJECTIVES

The 5 elements

Specific: Grow Workly by attracting active job seekers and local businesses.

Measurable: Reach 200 users, 50 businesses, and 100 completed jobs within 6 months.

Achievable: Use low-cost marketing like organic content, referrals, and direct outreach to scale efficiently.

Relevant: Meets the need for flexible work and fast hiring in local communities.

Time-bound: Hit initial traction in 6 months and expand to new areas within 12 months.

4. PRICE

Monetization

Multiple revenue streams:

Transaction Fee % cut from each completed job

Promoted Job Posts Employers pay to boost visibility in the feed

Subscription (B2B) Businesses pay for advanced hiring tools, analytics, and priority matching

5. PROMOTION

How and where we market

We'll promote Workly by meeting users where they already are on TikTok, Instagram, and YouTube with simple, real clips of jobs and quick pay. We'll support this with targeted local ads and partnerships to quickly build activity in each city, while using referrals to spread organically.
